On 04/06/2002, [Redacted] detained at Guantanamo Bay (GTMO) Naval Base, Cuba, was re-interviewed by Special Agent [Redacted] and Special Agent [Redacted]

[Redacted] After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents, [Redacted] provided the following information:

[Redacted] was questioned regarding information about going on in Camp X-Ray as far as what he has heard the detainees talking about. He advised that the military guards had a demonstration on how the detainees will be moved to the new prison and the prisoners are worried. He also noted that there are some problems in the camp regarding their personal hygiene.

[Redacted] stated that the detainees are tired of being moved so many times to include Bagram, Qandahar and Camp X-Ray. He also advised that the Military Police (MP's), named [Redacted] have been mistreating the detainees by pushing them around and throwing their waste bucket to them in the cell, sometimes with waste still in the bucket and kicking the Koran. He also noted that in the Muslim culture, people do not get dressed, shower or use the bathroom in front of others; however, they are being forced to do so.

[Redacted] stated that the multiple moves, the mistreatment and hygiene issues may force some of the detainees to cause problems during the move. He advised the interviewers to warn the guards that they should take extra precautions during the move because some of the detainees are feeling that they have nothing to lose and are waiting for a time to cry out. The move might be that time. He is aware that other detainees feel that they would rather die than live the way they are living and he has heard an unknown detainee say "Death before I live like this". He noted that he has no specific information about any one particular detainee who may cause a problem but this was his personal feeling. He also stated that having demonstrations on how they are to be moved gives the detainees time to think of a way to possibly cause problems.

[Redacted] explained that some of the detainees are Mujahideen and they feel that when it is time to die it is their time to die and they will not care about taking someone else around them with them when they die.

b7D -1

[REDACTED] denies having any relationship to the Taliban or Al Qaeda, and specifically denies having taken up arms at any time on behalf of any nation or organization. He hates the Taliban [REDACTED]

b6 -3,4
b7F -1

[REDACTED] He also opposes USAMA BIN LADEN and MULLAH MOHAMMAD OMAR, as he feels they kill innocent people. According to [REDACTED] ninety percent of the people in Afghanistan opposed BIN LADEN and OMAR. Most Afghans, including himself, want to become part of the world and not be isolated from it and labeled terrorists.

[REDACTED] does not consider the U.S. an enemy of Islam. He is of the opinion that the U.S. believes in justice, although he feels justice is not being done in his case. [REDACTED] complained that he is being treated worse by his American jailers than he was when he was jailed by the Taliban.

b6 -3,
b7F -1

[REDACTED] first heard of the terrorist attacks in the U.S. on [REDACTED] version of Voice of America radio. He initially could not believe it was true. He had no prior knowledge of the attacks and had not heard any rumors of anything about to occur.

[Redacted] heard about USAMA BIN LADIN's (UBL) Fatwas against the U.S. and the U.S. military from fellow fighters. He added that UBL is not a Sheik or religious figure but is a Mujahideen and will get killed and is killing others. He noted that Muslims can not take a Fatwah from a non-religious figure. In Islam, Muslims should do the right thing; however, not everyone does the right thing. Any Fatwah that says otherwise is outside the truth.

[redacted] Civilian linguist [redacted] of the 170th Language Support Cell provided [redacted] translation. After being advised of the purpose of the interview [redacted] voluntarily provided the following information:

After he was captured, he spent two or three months at the Kandahar airport. He was treated harshly by U.S. soldiers at Peshawar and Kandahar. He was beaten on the head, chest, back, hands and feet. He could hear people screaming and shouting but could not see them because his face was covered. He was put facedown on the ground. He does not remember any names of the other men who were with him at the Kandahar airport nor does he know anyone at Camp Delta who was there with him.

He could not reference any verses from the Qur'an regarding the killing of innocent women and children although he claimed to have been a teacher of the Qur'an before being captured. He is offended by the killing of innocent women and children.

He believes suicide is unlawful and forbidden in Islam. These are acts of extremists. The Qur'an does not specifically address suicide but refers to it in general.

After being moved to an unknown facility in Bagram, his head was placed against the cement floor and his head was kicked. As a result of other beatings in Bagram, [redacted] received a broken shoulder. During one evening [redacted] was left outside of the facility where he was being held. The ground was wet and it was snowing. He was wearing only pants and a ragged shirt. As a result of being out in the cold, he became unconscious. The guards stated in English that [redacted] was a "big one." Two men had pistols, while another had a machine gun. These individuals wore US uniforms, but wore coverings over their faces. They wore desert style camouflage uniforms. They look like the uniforms of the US guards here in Cuba, but are tan and brown. The uniforms had the US flag sewn on their arms.

When he was moved to Kandahar, he was not beaten as frequently and severely. Periodically, [redacted] was kicked and pushed. He was dragged three times to interrogations. On one occasion during [redacted] prayer time, a soldier placed his foot on [redacted] head and then sat on his head. [redacted] stated that the soldiers wore tan and brown camouflage uniforms, with US flags on their arms.

[redacted] was captured by the Northern Alliance forces. A short time after his capture, [redacted] was turned over to the American military. [redacted] stated that he was not mistreated at any time, nor did he witness any mistreatment while in the custody of the Northern Alliance. [redacted] stated that he was treated "roughly" while in the custody of the American military. [redacted] further stated that while he was not abused while in the custody of the American military, he was, on occasion, pushed to the ground while his hands were handcuffed behind his back.

If [redacted] is released and he returns [redacted] he expects that he will be imprisoned by [redacted] government. This is because he went to Afghanistan and actively participated in the fighting without official permission from [redacted] government. [redacted] believes that he will be imprisoned for approximately one (1) year. This fact does not bother [redacted] because he knows that he was wrong to travel to Afghanistan and join the Taliban. [redacted] is willing to be released to [redacted] authorities and to be placed in [redacted] prison because he would then be one step closer to rejoining his family.
